MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES
Pursuant to Evidence Code section 459 and Rule 8.252, California Rules of Court, appellant moves the Court to take judicial notice of the documents contained in Exhibits A through G to the motion. The documents are portions of the legislative history of Assembly Bill 3109, Chapter 329, Statutes of 1990 enacting Government Code section 65852.6. These documents were obtained from the Legislative Intent Service in Woodland California ("LIS") and submitted under the declaration of Dorothy H. Thomson, as true and correct copies of the originals.

1. Under Evidence Code section 459 appellate courts have the same right and power to take judicial notice as do the trial courts. "In an effort to discern legislative intent, an appellate court is entitled to take judicial notice of the various legislative materials, including committee reports, underlying the enactment of a statute." (Hale v. Southern California IPA Medical Group, Inc. (2001, Second District Division 3) 86 Cal.App.4th 919, 927) "The Court of Appeal granted RVLG's request for judicial notice of documents bearing on the legislative history of section . . . We have likewise granted RVLG's request in this court to take judicial notice of these same legislative history materials." (Smith v. Rae-Venter Law Group (2002) 29 Cal.4th 345, 359, fn.7)

2. Documents supplied by LIS have consistently been utilized by the Supreme Court and the Courts of appeal, either when proffered by the litigants or on their own motion, and LIS has often been mentioned in appellate opinions as the source of the documents. (See, e.g., People v. Sanchez (2001) 24 Cal.4th 983, 992, fn.4; People v. Brown (1993) 6 Cal.4th 322, 334; and People v. Connor (2004, Sixth District) 115 Cal.App.4th 669, 681, fn.3)

3. The declaration of a Legislative Intent Service attorney to the effect that the copies provided are true and correct copies of the originals is sufficient to authenticate the materials. People v. Connor (2004, Sixth District) 115 Cal.App.4th 669, 681; Whaley v. Sony Computer America, Inc. (2004, Fourth District, Division 1) 121 Cal.App.4th 479, 487

Courts Have Taken Judicial Notice of The Types of Documents In This Motion

Courts have taken judicial notice of the same types of legislative documents listed in appellant's motion for judicial notice set forth as Exhibits A through G, as follows:

Exhibit A: Various versions of a legislative bill. (Alford v. Superior Court (People) (2003) 29 Cal.4th 1033, 1040-1041; Myers v. Philip Morris Companies, Inc. (2002) 28 Cal.4th 828, 844)

Exhibits B and D: Committee analyses. (In re J.W. (2002) 29 Cal.4th 200, 211-212; El Dorado Palm Springs, Ltd. v. City of Palm Springs et al. (2002, Fourth District Division 2) 96 Cal.App.4th 1155, 1170)

Exhibits E: Third Reading Analysis prepared by Office of Senate Floor Analyses. (Sharon S.v. Superior Court (Annette F) (2003) 31 Cal.4th 417, 459; People v. Broussard (1993) 5 Cal.4th 1067,1075)

Updated: 7/1/2007

Exhibits C and G: Legislative committee bill analysis worksheet and other documents from a legislative committee file. (People v. Connor (2004, Sixth District) 115 Cal.App.4th 669, 681, fn.3; People v. Snyder (2000) 22 Cal.4th 304, 309)

Exhibit G: Legislative author letters to governor. Lantzy v. Centex Homes (2003) 31 Cal.4th 363, 376-7; and Mercy Hospital and Medical Center v. Farmers Insurance Group of Companies (1997) 15 Cal.4th 213, 222.)

The Documents Are Relevant

The types of legislative documents submitted herewith are routinely considered by the reviewing courts of this State when considering the background and purpose of specific bills and statutes. In the case at bench, this material sheds considerable light on the circumstances leading to the passage of Assembly Bill 3109 in 1990, and the language ultimately arrived at through the legislative process for the text of Government Code section 65852.6. ... [moving party must show relevance]

CONCLUSION

For all of the foregoing reasons, appellant respectfully moves that this Court take judicial notice of Exhibits A through G herein, pursuant to Evidence Code section 459.
