Code of Civil Procedure § 395.5 – Compiled February, 2012

Our review of the annotated history reveals the following legislative history (every “c.” below represents a separate legislative bill):

§ 395.5

Prior History: Former Art. XII, § 16, adopted May 7, 1879, read as follows:

Sec. 16. A corporation or association may be sued in the county where the contract is made or is to be performed, or where the obligation or liability arises, or the breach occurs; or in the county where the principal place of business of such corporation is situated, subject to the power of the Court to change the place of trial as in other cases.

Added: 1972, c. 118, as made operative by repeal of the former California Constitution provision and approved by the electorate on June 6, 1972, to read as follows:

395.5. A corporation or association may be sued in the county where the contract is made or is to be performed, or where the obligation or liability arises, or the breach occurs; or in the county where the principal place of business of such corporation is situated, subject to the power of the court to change the place of trial as in other cases.

Amended: None thus far

Two measures affected this section.

Tracing Statutory Language:

- Research fees can be minimized by ordering only the bills that affected specific subdivisions or phrases of interest to you.
- Changes to statutes can sometimes be determined by the annotations provided by Deering’s, Westlaw, and Lexis.
- If annotations are not available, one strategy is to look at each chaptered law noted above to observe the changes. Another strategy is to retain us to trace your language and report our findings back to you.

SINCE 1974, LEGISLATIVE INTENT SERVICE, INC., has provided the legislative and regulatory history for all state statutes and regulations. You can order legislative history research in two different ways:

- 1. Traditional Custom Research for a per-bill fixed research fee, based on time-frame.

2. Store Research for $300 per bill, available for immediate download at www.legintent.com.

We appreciate the opportunity to provide this assistance. Contact us if you have any questions or wish to place an order for custom research or tracing.
